REGIONAL CENTER SERVICES

For persons 3 years and older who have a developmental disability defined as intellectual disability, cerebral palsy, epilepsy or autism that originates before 18 years of age and continues or can be expected to continue indefinitely and constitutes a substantial disability. Also included are disabling conditions found to be closely related to intellectual disability or to require treatment similar to that required for individuals with intellectual disability.

A child 3-5 years old may be eligible under Provisional Eligibility if they have a disability that is not solely physical in nature and the child has significant functional limitations in at least two areas of major life activity:
